Web Development Projects:

- The Loose Cut: Designed and coded a front-end static landing page with multi device compatibility for an official Leeds and Reading Festival band using HTML, CSS & JavaScript. This exposed me to client interaction/ communication and improved my understanding of Agile design & development phases as well as domain hosting.
- Face Detector App: A full stack application that uses a machine learning API to recognise faces. Created with ReactJS, CSS, NodeJS, PostgreSQL & Clarifai API and deployed with Heroku. It also utilises a sign in system secured with Bcrypt password hashing. The creation of this application greatly improved my understanding of how the front and back-end of a complex dynamic app are connected via a server.
- Gatsby Blog: A personal blog to share developer resources. Created with GatsbyJS, ReactJS, GraphQL & CSS and deployed via Netlify. This project allowed me to utilise one of the fastest static site generators to build a Progressive Web App with performance in mind.
- Robofriends: A fun front-end React app that displays a friends list with a search function. Created with ReactJS, CSS & Robohash API. This project exposed me to the difference between developing vanilla JavaScript and React applications through component management.

Senior Buyer

£600m London Underground Bank Station Capacity Upgrade Project

- Serving as the direct report for the Apprentice Buyer in the team. This developed my discipline of managerial psychology, emotional intelligence, active listening and development training skills.
- Lead commodity buyer of IT Hardware/ Software, Electronics, Steel, Timber, Consumables and Plant with a total spend value of £10m.
- Succeeded in a PM role for the implementation of a new asset management software by utilising Kanban for project completion.

ACHIEVEMENTS

☯ Black Belt in Taekwondo
Achieved at 10 y/o that taught me discipline and leadership skills.
